WHAT DO WE HAVE TO OFFER?

The Austin Music Co-op is the first Musician's Co-op in the United States. Residents live together in a 23 room co-op creating a fun and functional living space. Our home holds ideas, friends, shows, jams and music around every corner. Sharing responsibilities means lower rent than almost anywhere in town. For $440 to $550 per month, you pay rent for a private or shared room, utilities, all of your food, phone, computer room, rehearsal space and a stage!

WHAT DO YOU HAVE TO OFFER ?

You are a working, gigging musician in Austin who is looking to expand as a person and as an artist. You are eager to rock your house and can do at least 4 hours per week of labor.

7 STEPS TO LIVING AT AMC

1. Fill out an application and turn it in with $10 to our Membership Coordinator.
2. Come to the co-op for a guest dinner any Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Take a tour! We are at 5413 Guadalupe, one block east of Lamar.
3. Meet our residents to see if this is the right place for you to live. Pick out a room.
4. Come to a House Meeting on Sunday at 2 p.m. You must be voted in by the house.
5. Turn in your deposit to the office at 5413 Guadalupe. Deposit holds your room.
6. Move in and be an active member of our community! Let the music flow...
7. Pay your rent every month. Enjoy life here!

What is a Co-op?

Definition

A co-operative is an autonomous association of persons united voluntarily to meet their common economic, social, and cultural needs and aspirations through a jointly-owned and democratically-controlled enterprise.

Values

Co-operatives are based on the values of self-help, self-responsibility, democracy, equality, equity, and solidarity. In the tradition of their founders, co-operative members believe in the ethical values of honesty, openness, social responsibility, and caring for others.

The Seven Principles of Cooperation

- 1. Voluntary and Open Membership
- 2. Democratic Member Control
- 3. Member Economic Participation
- 4. Autonomy and Independence
- 5. Education, Training and Information
- 6. Co-operation Among Co-operatives
- 7. Concern for Community
